

Table of Contents

■ How to use this book	1
■ City Hall and ward offices	2
■ Emergencies	3
Accidents and incidents	3
Sudden illnesses and fires	3
What to do if you suddenly get sick or injured at night or on weekends	3
■ Earthquakes	4
How to prepare for an earthquake	4
What to do in an earthquake	5
After the shaking stops	6
■ Typhoons and Heavy Rain	6
How to prepare for typhoons and heavy rain	7
Sendai Disaster Multilingual Support Center	7
■ Basics	8
I. Residence	8
Once you have an address, register as a resident	8
Moving	8
Paid work outside of eligibilities outlined by your status of residence	8
Leaving and re-entering Japan	9
If your residence card is lost or stolen	10
Individual Number (My Number) system (social security and tax number system) ..	11
II. Daily life	12
1. Housing	12
Renting housing	12
What you need to sign a rental contract	12
Renewing your contract	12
Terminating your contract	12
What is public housing?	13
2. Water, electricity, and gas	14
3. Telephone	15
Buying a mobile phone or SIM card	15
Calling from a public telephone	15

International phone calls	15
4. Internet	15
Using the internet from your home computer	15
5. Postal service	16
If you receive a notice of non-delivery	16
6. Money	17
How to open a bank account	17
How to close a bank account	17
ATMs	17
7. Personal seals	18
Purchasing a personal seal	18
Registering a personal seal	18
8. Waste disposal	18
Putting out household waste	18
Disposing of bulky waste	19
9. Television and radio	20
Television	20
Foreign-language radio programs	20
Viewing and listening to international broadcasts on the internet	20
10. Police boxes	20
11. Neighborhood associations	21
12. Taxes, pension, and welfare	21
Taxes	21
Paying inhabitant tax when you leave Japan	21
Pension	21
Welfare services	22
III. Health	23
1. Health check-ups	23
2. Hospitals	23
Going to a hospital/clinic	23
Health insurance, Myna health insurance card or eligibility certificates	24
IV. Children	24
1. Pregnancy, childbirth and babies	24

If you are pregnant	24
Lump-sum allowance for childbirth	24
Childbirth Assistance Program	24
When your baby is born	25
What to do when your child is sick	25
Health check-ups for babies	25
2. Toddlers	25
Immunization for children	25
Child allowance	26
Sending your child to nursery school	26
Authorized nursery schools	26
Unlicensed childcare facilities	27
Sending your child to kindergartens	27
Sending your child to authorized centers for early childhood education and care	27
Sending your children to regional child daycare services	27
Places where parent and child can play together (Nobisuku)	27
Visiting a children's center	28
3. School	28
Sending your child to Sendai municipal elementary and junior high schools	28
Support and activities for students and parents whose first language is not Japanese	29
International schools in Sendai	29
V. Transportation	30
1. Public transportation	30
Buses	30
Subway	31
Purchasing individual subway tickets	31
Purchasing icsca cards	32
Purchasing one-day passes	32
Purchasing commuter passes	32
JR trains	32
Long-distance buses	32
Taxis	32

2. Cars, motorcycles and bicycles	33
Driving a car or motorcycle in Japan	33
Converting a foreign license	33
Registering your car or motorcycle	34
Signing up for insurance	34
Bicycles	34
Following traffic regulations in Japan	34
VI. Work	37
■ Other Information	38
Studying Japanese	38
Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT)	38
Scholarships for international students in Japan	38
Obtaining information	39
Contact information for the Prefectural Office, City Hall, and ward offices	42
Public Facilities in Sendai City	42

Appendix: Conversation Chart, Sendai Area Train Line Map